'less and more' by morten linde is a dialogue between two identical contours that value, material and design set apart. one is arabescato carrara marble, formed hundreds of millions of years ago and long a sign of wealth and splendour; the other is birch plywood, a cheap industrial material made by man in the 1940s, finished in linseed oil paint.this is the marble version, an edition from 2023, 24 × 48 × 48 cm, about 30 kg; eight pieces are left. made to order, it ships from the studio within twelve weeks, as freight quoted for your address.
