die isar bei thalkirchen

by gilberto botti

painting in oil on canvas

€1.800*

an original painting by gilberto botti: bare trees on the river bank, a railway bridge and three tall chimneys under a grey winter sky, in oil on canvas, 2020–21. one of three paintings in which gilberto botti follows the isar along the path from the zoo into the centre of munich: chimneys and a railway bridge stand in the trees like the abandoned buildings of a heroic landscape, quiet and outside of time, in the middle of the city. gilberto botti is an italian architect and painter based in munich. he studied architecture in florence and venice, taught design and building construction as a professor, and has worked as a painter since 2017. unique piece, 80 × 60 cm.
