floor lamp in kozo paper and stainless steel

€1.530*

a floor lamp that echoes fingers closing as they rise: the body flows from the base into the shade in one continuous form, with curves and reliefs running upwards. the shade is handmade by müge du from japanese kozo paper over a natural rattan structure, held by stainless steel beads and linen thread; the stainless steel base is bent by hand by stephan sammer. the serpentine collection starts from the abstract snake carvings of göbeklitepe: the base rises like a serpent from the earth towards the light.porcelain lamp socket. open edition, each lamp handmade to order, so every piece varies slightly.made to order — ships from the studio in vienna within 1–4 weeks of the order, delivery time to your country comes on top.endless flat studio is the vienna studio of the architects and designers müge du and stephan sammer, working in collectible design with sculptural lighting and objects.height 88 cm, diameter 44 cm. each lamp may vary slightly in size.2 m cable, fitted with a ce-marked set of cable, socket, plug and switch.photos © lea sonderegger.
