flache schale — white & beige

by atelier von ehren

hand-built stoneware bowl

a flat bowl in white and beige. the conical outer contour points at architectural profiles, while the interior takes a round course set slightly inwards. the difference between the two holds the piece together. each piece is built by hand and signed by the maker — one of one. glazed inside and out, dishwasher safe. small variations in colour and surface are part of it.
