candle holder in stoneware

fum is romanian for smoke: a ceramic candle holder in the shape of smoke rising and drifting. it holds a single taper candle and stands as an object in its own right without one. made by hand in catalin filip's studio in st leonards-on-sea, england. in terracotta clay; raw textured finish outside, cream speckled glaze inside. made to order: the studio makes each piece after the order, within 4–5 weeks. every piece is formed by hand, so shape and surface vary slightly from piece to piece. open edition, designed in 2026. photography: jorge antony stride. shipping and import. this piece ships from the studio in the uk. it is sent with import vat and duties paid (ddp), so nothing is charged on delivery in the eu.
