sculpture in black stoneware

€1.940*

the largest piece of the movement series: a ceramic sculpture in black vulcan stoneware, pulled and folded and left to respond to its own weight, then fixed at the moment it seems about to give way. unglazed, with a raw, granular black finish. made by hand in catalin filip's studio in st leonards-on-sea, england. made to order: the studio makes each piece after the order, within 5–6 weeks. every piece is formed by hand, so shape and surface vary slightly from piece to piece. limited edition of 5, designed in 2025. photography: jorge antony stride. shipping and import. this piece ships from the studio in the uk. it is sent with import vat and duties paid (ddp), so nothing is charged on delivery in the eu.
